Con Brio

The musical score consists of three systems of two staves each. The first system is marked 'Con Brio' and begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The second system features a crescendo leading to a forte (f) dynamic, with a tr (trill) marking above the treble staff and a sf (sforzando) marking below the bass staff. The third system continues with a strong, rhythmic accompaniment. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C).

505

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and contains a complex melodic line with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and contains a more rhythmic accompaniment. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is placed above the first measure of the upper staff.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the complex melodic line from the first system. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is placed above the first measure of the upper staff.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff features a melodic line with some rests and a dynamic marking of p (piano) below the first measure. The lower staff continues the accompaniment. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is placed above the eighth measure of the upper staff.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff has a melodic line with a dynamic marking of p (piano) below the first measure. The lower staff continues the accompaniment.

The fifth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff has a melodic line with a dynamic marking of f (forte) above the first measure. The lower staff continues the accompaniment.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of D major, indicated by two sharps (F# and C#). The music begins with a forte dynamic marking 'f'. The upper staff contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the lower staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with eighth notes and rests.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with dynamic markings of piano 'p' and forte 'f'. The lower staff features a more complex accompaniment with slurs and dynamic markings of piano 'p' and forte 'f'. The key signature remains D major.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with dynamic markings of piano 'p' and forte 'f'. The lower staff continues the accompaniment with dynamic markings of piano 'p' and forte 'f'. The key signature remains D major.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with dynamic markings of piano 'p' and forte 'f'. The lower staff continues the accompaniment with dynamic markings of piano 'p' and forte 'f'. The key signature remains D major.

The fifth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with dynamic markings of piano 'p' and forte 'f'. The lower staff continues the accompaniment with dynamic markings of piano 'p' and forte 'f'. The key signature remains D major.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 4/4. It begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking and contains several measures of chords and melodic lines. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment with sustained notes and moving lines. A forte (f) dynamic marking appears in the middle of the system.

The second system features a vocal line in the upper staff and a piano accompaniment in the lower staff. The vocal line begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking and includes the lyrics "cres - cen - do" written below the notes. The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the bass line and chords in the treble line.

The third system continues the musical piece with two staves. The upper staff shows a melodic line with a forte (f) dynamic marking. The lower staff provides a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth-note patterns and chords.

The fourth system concludes the page with two staves. The upper staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking and features a melodic line with various intervals and rests. The lower staff continues the accompaniment with eighth-note patterns and chords.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of D major. The music begins with a series of quarter and eighth notes, followed by a more complex passage with sixteenth notes. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present in the upper staff.

The second system continues the piece with two staves. The upper staff features a dense, rapid sixteenth-note passage, while the lower staff provides a more rhythmic accompaniment with quarter and eighth notes.

The third system consists of two staves. The upper staff has a complex rhythmic pattern with many sixteenth notes, while the lower staff has a simpler accompaniment of quarter notes.

The fourth system consists of two staves. The music transitions to a slower tempo and a softer dynamic. The tempo marking is Adagio and the dynamic marking is Pianissimo. The notation includes a first ending bracket marked with a '1' and a fermata over the final notes. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is also present.

Bassoon

Oboe

Musical notation for the first system, consisting of a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The bassoon part is indicated by the label "Bassoon" centered below the bass staff. The music features a complex rhythmic pattern with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes.

Musical notation for the second system, consisting of a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#). This system includes tempo markings: "calando" (rushing) above the treble staff, "Adagio" (slowly) above the bass staff, and "a Tempo" (return to tempo) above the treble staff. The music continues with intricate rhythmic patterns.

Musical notation for the third system, consisting of a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#). A dynamic marking of "f" (forte) is present above the treble staff. The notation continues with complex rhythmic figures.

Musical notation for the fourth system, consisting of a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#). This system is characterized by multiple trill markings ("tr") above various notes in both staves, indicating rapid oscillations between adjacent notes.

Musical notation for the fifth system, consisting of a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The system concludes with a double bar line, indicating the end of the piece or section. The final notes are sustained.

Judy's Bonnet of straw wears the token of love,
 Which Paddy had bought her, his passion to prove;
 Fine Ribbands and Roses, to deck out her hair,
 And the neatest stuff gown to be had in the Fair:
 Sweet spoelen,
 On the Green,
 When they dine,
 Whisky fine;
 The Piper still playing, the Priest he says grace,
 And Content, Love, and Jollity, smile in each face.

Now the Fair being done, home they jog side by side,
 Every Lad with the creature he means for his Bride;
 The next morn Father Fogarty's call'd with his Book,
 Nine or ten jolly couples together to hook;
 Coupling, buckling,
 Pipering, fiddling;
 Father Fogarty, Piper, and all join the rout,
 And the new married couples fall jigging about.

O' LIFFEY

I'll live till I'm dead ever constant to thee, sing fari-nina, sing fari-nani, I won't lie while I'm telling the truth, do ye see, Oh then to your arms, my sweet Creature, take me, with my chic a che ouri-low la la-ra la lara la lee.

And if while you love, from a breast full of hate,
Sing farinina, sing farinani;
You make me a widow in spite of old Fate,
When dead you shall never again see me, mate,
With my chic a che, &c.

Then whilst we stand still, let us pleasure pursue,
Sing farinina, sing farinani;
I hate to look backwards when beauty's in view,
For the sight that is black always makes me look blue,
With my chic a che, &c.

In all the wide world were no woman but you,
Sing farinina, sing farinani;
The rest I'd forsake and to you would be true,
Then your Irishman love, ogh I see that you do,
With my chic a che, &c.
