OVERTURE

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves have a 3/4 time signature and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music begins with a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, creating a rhythmic pattern. The upper staff features a melodic line with some grace notes, while the lower staff provides a harmonic accompaniment.

The second system continues the musical piece. It features two staves, treble and bass clef, in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp. The music shows a continuation of the rhythmic patterns from the first system, with some dynamic markings like p (piano) appearing in the lower staff.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves have a 3/4 time signature and a key signature of one sharp. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present in the lower staff, indicating a change in volume.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp. The music continues with similar rhythmic and melodic motifs.

The fifth system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp. The music concludes with some final chords and melodic fragments.

Corni tutti Corni

The first system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both are in the key of D major (two sharps). The music features a complex rhythmic pattern with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The word "Corni" is written above the first and last measures, and "tutti" is written above the middle measure.

The second system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both are in the key of D major. The music continues with intricate rhythmic patterns. The word "tutti" is written above the first measure.

f p

The third system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both are in the key of D major. The music features a mix of rhythmic patterns. The dynamic markings f (forte) and p (piano) are present.

The fourth system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both are in the key of D major. The music continues with intricate rhythmic patterns.

The fifth system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both are in the key of D major. The music concludes with a final cadence, indicated by a double bar line.

The musical score is arranged in five systems. Each system contains two staves: the upper staff is for the Oboe and the lower staff is for the Violin. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The Gavotto section is characterized by rapid sixteenth-note passages in the Oboe part, while the Rondeau section features a more melodic and rhythmic Oboe line. The Violin part provides a steady accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes. The score includes dynamic markings such as f and tutti, and articulation marks like accents and slurs. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the Violin part.

2^d Verse.

To be certain Old Formal will frown and look blue,
 Call you baggage, deceitful bold face,
 With all manner of names he can lay his tongue to,
 And perhaps turn you out of your place;

What of that, let him frown let him spit all his spite,
 Your heart still as light as a feather,
 With truth shall assure you, 'tis doing but right,
 To bring Lubin and Gillian together.
